Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my enthusiastic interest in the Junior Web Developer position at Onetap Technologies, as advertised. With a strong passion for full-stack development and a solid foundation in modern web technologies, I am eager to contribute to your innovative projects right here in Nairobi.

My professional summary highlights my specialisation in Python backend development, utilising frameworks such as Django and FastAPI, which has provided me with a robust understanding of client-server architecture and building scalable RESTful APIs. I am proficient in database management with PostgreSQL and MySQL, demonstrating hands-on exposure to backend services and server-side logic, ready to apply these skills to real-world challenges. This aligns directly with your requirement for exposure to backend services and experience with RESTful APIs.

Beyond my backend capabilities, I possess experience working with modern JavaScript frameworks including React, Next.js, and TypeScript. My familiarity with Git-based version control workflows and command-line proficiency ensures I am well-equipped for efficient daily development tasks. I am comfortable working in various code editors and navigating development environments, ready to seamlessly integrate into your development team.

I am particularly drawn to Onetap Technologies given your reputation as a leading organisation in the tech space in Nairobi. As an aspiring developer, I am keen to grow my skills within a dynamic team that values collaboration and innovation, aspects I deeply resonate with. My strong self-motivation and adaptability, coupled with a commitment to building client-facing products, make me confident I can quickly become a valuable asset to your team, contributing effectively from day one.

I am available for an interview at your earliest convenience and can commence work immediately. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my skills and enthusiasm can benefit Onetap Technologies.

Yours sincerely,
